

XM radio has been great for me in a market where I don't have a lot of choice. NAB should look at their business models if they are not doing so well. Make them change not us.